Laura,

Happy to sit down and introduce myself to talk about the direction of lowans for a Progressive Tomorrow, and my past/future involvement with campaigns.

Although, I will not talk about financing of lowans for a Progressive Tomorrow.

As I indicated before, we will be following the FEC disclosure requirements. I don't believe we're required to disclose our sources of funding under FEC, or IRS law.

Let me know if you want to grab coffee.

PS - Great job on the Insiders!

Best,

Rocky Sposato

Subject: more questions about lowans for a Progressive Tomorrow

To: Rocky Sposato &lt;rjsposato@yahoo.com&gt;

Hello Rocky,

I have a few follow-up questions about lowans for a Progressive Tomorrow.

1. What can you tell me about the group's planned activities for the remainder of this year? Will you be doing more direct mail? Online activism? Planning real-world events? GOTV on behalf of candidates?

2. Under federal law, any person making independent expenditures in excess of $250 in a calendar year must file a report with the FEC and must disclose each person who made a contribution in excess of $200 for the purpose of furthering an independent expenditure.

Have you filed such a disclosure with the FEC yet? I didn't find one, but the search engine on their website is not the most reliable.

3. If you haven't yet disclosed your donors, can you either provide a list of those who donated more than $200 or let me know when you will be filing an FEC report containing that information?

Thanks in advance.

Yours,
