Hinson Provides Readout of Third Telephone Town Hall

Washington, D.C. - Congresswoman Ashley Hinson (IA-01) held her third telephone town hall tonight and discussed a wide variety of issues with constituents from Iowa's First District.

"Thank you to everyone who joined tonight's district-wide telephone town hall. As I told everyone on the line, it is the greatest honor of my life to serve our district in Congress and I'm working every day to cut through the chaos and dysfunction in Washington to deliver for our families, workers, small businesses, and farmers," said Congresswoman Ashley Hinson. "That means pushing back on harmful policies—like the big spending agenda we are seeing from the Administration and Speaker Pelosi—but finding common ground where possible to deliver for Iowans. We had a great conversation on the need to rein spending, as well as what's next for an infrastructure package, and I addressed issues facing our small business community and farmers right now. I'll keep focusing on the issues that Iowans are talking about around their kitchen tables every single night and working to solve them in Congress."
