Joni Ernst For U.S. Senate Announces Campaign Manager

Native Iowan will manage Joni Ernst's 2026 Re-Election Campaign

Des Moines, Iowa – U.S. Senator Joni Ernst's campaign announced today the hiring of Bryan Kraber as Campaign Manager for her 2026 re-election.

Bryan brings more than a decade of experience in Iowa politics, having worked on high-profile state and federal races, including Ernst's successful 2020 campaign for U.S. Senate. A seasoned strategist with deep ties across the Hawkeye State, Bryan is known for his steady leadership, tactical know-how, and unwavering commitment to Iowa's conservative values.

"I'm thrilled to have Bryan Kraber leading my re-election campaign," said Senator Joni Ernst. "A native Iowan, Bryan knows our state, he knows how to win, and he's ready to hit the ground running. His experience, energy, and grit will be an incredible asset as we fight for lowans in the U.S. Senate."

Bryan expressed his enthusiasm for the opportunity, saying, "Senator Ernst is a tireless advocate for lowans and a leader I deeply respect. I'm honored to lead her campaign, and I'm ready to get to work to ensure a big win in 2026—so she can continue to fight for Iowa's farmers, families, and veterans, and make Washington squeal!"
