Eddie Mauro Announces Statewide Endorsements in Senate Race

(Des Moines, Iowa - December 12, 2019) Senate candidate Eddie Mauro has announced a number of key endorsements from across the state today, including state representatives, prominent activists, and political leaders.

Dr. Frantz Whitfield, Pastor of Mt. Carmel Baptist Church in Waterloo, shared this statement with his endorsement:

It has become quite evident that our Republican counterparts have put politics over people. It is crucial that we put a new face in Washington that will have lowans' best interests at heart, and Eddie Mauro is that advocate that we can truly believe in.

That's why today I'm officially endorsing my friend Eddie. Senator Joni Ernst has given us false hopes, and broken promises for too long, and the only person capable to clean up the moral disaster that's been created is Eddie Mauro. Join me in supporting Eddie, and watch the journey to change begin to unfold for a better Iowa, and America.

Others endorsing Eddie Mauro for Senate include:

- Rep. Ruth Ann Gaines, State Rep District 32
- Rep. Ako Abdul-Samad, State Representative District 35
- Rep. Charlie McConkey, State Representative District 15
- Mazahir Salih, Iowa City Councilwoman
- Dick Murphy, Former DMPS President
- Alba Perez, Community Activist
- Ed Fallon, Executive Director, Bold Iowa, former state legislator
- Kathy Byrnes, Climate Activist
- Pauline Taylor, Iowa City Councilwoman
- Christine Curry, Climate Activist
- Heather M. Jones, Community Activist
- Mike Delaney, Climate Activist
- Donna Crum, Mills County Dems Chair
- Som Baccam, Asian & Latino Coalition Board Member, Former DMPS School Board
